Worksheet for Identifying Persons Who Fail to Satisfy Criteria, dvm, 01-15-08

Name	A. Must be a person, place or idea/concept	B. Person: deceased, prominent, significance to district	C. Place: locally significant	D. idea-concept: broadly representative virtue/value	1. Local over national	2. Remembering teachers and educators	3. Not pejorative	4. No new naming system	5. Doesn't duplicate or sound like another well-know name	6. No embarrassing double meanings	7. Simplicity, brevity, clarity, originality	8. Relatively recent contribution over the distant past	9. Clean slate	10. Balanced and representative	11. Overwhelmingly exemplary and inspirational	12. Recognition of school's eco-qualities	13. Possession of meritorious qualities	14. Pleasant sounding, even poetic	15. Well-researched
Louisa Brayton
Becky Buchmann
Carrie Chapman Catt
J.W. Clark
Anthony Curreri
Hermine Sautoff Davidson
Jeffrey Erlanger
Tony Farina
Mildred Fish-Harnack
Betty Franklin-Hammonds
Frank Gambino
Roger Gribble
Elroy Hirsch
Alice Hough
Rachel Hugo
Pearl Leroux
Touby Lyfoung
Mark Maida
Michael McKinney
Anna Mae Mitchell
Philleo & Edith Nash
Gaylord Nelson
Paul J. Olson
William Proxmire
Vinnie Ream
Mitchell Red Cloud
Fred Rogers
Clarence Rung
Dimetra Taliaferro Shivers
Verner and Paula Suomi
Howard Temin
Ilda Thomas
August Vander Meulen
Carl Waller
Thornton Wilder																			