

Question:

What is the definition of a “Comprehensive” High School Program?

1. Define “Comprehensive High School Program”

A comprehensive high school offers the core academic areas required by the state for graduation and additional coursework in the areas of technology, business education, family and consumer education, art, music, drama, and other elective areas which meet the broad range of interests that lead to post secondary education, training and employment.